Meetings – 3

Plans Reviews – 13

- Probationary FF John Saunders will have finished his 1-week recruit class by the meeting date
- The new ambulance has been delivered; once striped and stocked it will be placed in service. The old ambulance will remain a back-up and can be used for special event details.
- Division Chief of Training, Marty Wilkey, will be resigning his part-time position with the department. At the time of this report, we are currently working on filling the position with an appointment
- Fire HQ/Station Task Force update: I met with several architectural firms to gain information to determine general scope of work and cost per square foot opinions, project budget estimates, and fire station building experience. The firms were Axis (w/HWC), RQAW, CSO, and DLZ. The findings will be reported to the task force and subsequent steps to be taken will be determined.
